"Army Aviation: Ready to Meet Tomorrow's Challenges, Today"

(MONROE, Conn., April 2, 2025) – The 2025 Army Aviation Mission Solutions Summit, sponsored by the Army Aviation Association of America (AAAA) will be held May 14-16, 2025, at the Gaylord Opryland Hotel and Convention Center in Nashville, Tenn. This year's theme is Army Aviation: Ready to Meet Tomorrow's Challenges Today

This AAAA-sponsored three-day event brings the entire Army Aviation community together to network for Solutions for Warfighters!

- Join thousands at the Professional Sessions in the main ballroom Wednesday, Thursday and Friday to hear Leadership messages and see Soldier Award presentations.
- Engage senior leaders in Q&A each afternoon in the Leaders Q&A Theater in the Ryman Exhibit Hall B. Topics include – 3 PM/ACM Interface sessions: Attack, UAS, and Aviation Mission Systems and Architecture; Artificial Intelligence in Army Aviation; Army Aviation Future Training Concepts and Simulation Technical Trends; Industry Leaders; International Aviation Leaders; and Flight School Next.
- Go to Working Group open meetings in the Working Group Theater in the Delta C and D Exhibit Hall. Topics include – Responsive & Cost Effective R&D; Cavalry Warfighter Panel; Aviation Warrant Officer Readiness Review; Enlisted Aviation Branch Update; Modernized Sensors for Aerial ISR and Survivability; and Unmanned Aircraft Systems: Transformation in Contact Today for Tomorrow.
- Lock in private one-on-one meetings with PMs in their show offices all three days beginning early morning through late afternoon.
- Join the Program Executive Officer Aviation and his 10 project managers for a two hour Industry Coordination Session on May 16.
- Experience next generation Army Aviation technology and functional static displays of helicopters in the more than 350,000 square feet of exhibit hall space.
